

The pumpkin that outgrew the shed

Somebody was generous with the compost. The allotment committee has been informed.

Object

About 5 min

Draw a garden hose. That's it.

Object

A garden hose

Quick

About 10 min

Draw a kid with a giant pumpkin, and make it feel awestruck.

Subject

A kid with a giant pumpkin

Mood

Awestruck

Full

Take your time

Draw a kid with a giant pumpkin in a sunny allotment. Make it feel awestruck, include a garden hose, a flask and a carrot, and stick to burnt orange and teal.

Location

A sunny allotment

Subject

A kid with a giant pumpkin

Mood

Awestruck

Objects

A garden hose, a flask and a carrot

Colour rule

Burnt orange and teal

Stretch

Bring snacks

Draw a kid with a giant pumpkin in a sunny allotment. Make it feel awestruck, include a garden hose, a flask and a carrot, and stick to burnt orange and teal. Stretch it: add mist rolling in, and tell a story in four panels.

|             |                                     |                                                                                                                                                                     |
|-------------|-------------------------------------|---------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------------|
| Location    | A sunny allotment                   |                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Subject     | A kid with a giant pumpkin          |                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Mood        | Awestruck                           |                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Objects     | A garden hose, a flask and a carrot |                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Colour rule | Burnt orange and teal               |   |
| Weather     | Mist rolling in                     |                                                                                                                                                                     |
| Constraint  | Tell a story in four panels         |                                                                                                                                                                     |